Cyprus in five acts

12

These five wines showcase the potential of our small island. The journey begins with a refreshing white, followed by two distinctive expressions of Xynisteri. A medium-bodied red reveals another side of Cyprus, before Commandaria, our historic sweet wine, brings the tasting to a memorable close.

WINE SELECTION

The Anthocyanins Journey

15

Anthocyanins, the natural pigments found in grape skins, giving wines their colour and depth. In this tasting, we follow their journey from light crimson hues to deeper layers of intensity. Glass by glass, the colour grows darker and the texture fuller, until the finale reveals an aged, golden spirit shaped by time.

Magnums

Big, Bold, and Extraordinary

Magnum bottles are a winemaker's statement of excellence. At twice the size of a standard bottle, magnums offer a unique aging potential that preserves freshness and enhances complexity. Like a masterpiece of art, these bottles encapsulate the finest qualities of wine, kept within the perfect balance set by the cork. Crafted to be shared, magnums are the ultimate expression of celebration and sophistication.

Wines made from our own vineyards are certified organic. All other grapes are sourced from small, multi-generational growers and purchased at fair prices to support sustainable viticulture.
